She will leave
There's no debate she's getting off quite shortly
Try to escape
But he ain't bothered cos he knows that she'll be back again

Now tony tells angela that he's nipping out for a bite
And he knows just how to handle her to make everything seem right
A few hours turn to many
Then that buggers gone all night
That's why she's leaving, oh oh oh

So the journey home begins and guess what tony's off his head
On the way back he relieves himself all over a neighbour's hedge
But his aim is quite abysmal, as he's pissing on his leg
This kid is skeevy, oh oh oh

She will leave
There's no debate she's getting off quite shortly
Try to escape
But he ain't bothered cos he knows that she'll be back
again
She's getting off quite shortly

So now it's key in door, tony sneaks quietly up to bed He's got another think coming if he thinks that he's loving
And he's getting some drunken sex
Angela says nothing,
He better?
Then she starts screaming
Woah oh oh

So in the morning when he wakes
He best make up for his mistakes
He's now tony the chef taking her breakfast in bed
She just can't leave him
Woah oh oh

She will leave
There's no debate she's getting off quite shortly
Try to escape
But he ain't bothered cos he knows that she'll be back
again
She's getting off quite shortly

What if she leaves
And if too late
And now your beds been made
For you to lie and realise that now you've lost a gem

She will leave
She's getting off quite shortly
She will leave
There's no mistake she's getting off quite shortly
Try to escape
But he ain't bothered cos he knows that she'll be back
again
She's getting off quite shortly
