Sunny days (sunny days)

I know are quite rare but I don't care cause I'm still happy

Oh so happy with the world today

What about a pretty girl

Well, maybe yes but I'm okay I've had enough heart
break through the day

No thrills just beans and toast today

Hey, Hey

Well no more sunny days

Not even a glimmer of the sun's rays

It's just me and my mates sky sports, now your gone

I'm watching too much sky sports

What I'm doing? Where I'm goin'? I dunno today

One plate at the table there use to be two

Now your gone I'm even watching count down

I bet you're with your friends, all around town

You're the only thing that I think about most

Looks like it's just me my beans and toast.

Sunny days (sunny days)

I know are quite rare but I don't care cause I'm still

Oh so happy with the world today

What about a pretty girl

Well, maybe yes but I'm okay I've had enough heart
break through the day

No thrills just beans and toast tonight

I feel low

I've already shedded a tear

Surrounded by pizza boxes and flat beer

I've got a head ache now one too many

I'm confused I thought things were going well

But it turns out that wasn't the case

Tell me were over bad news down the phone

I just wanted to see your face for the last time

Maybe I can change your thoughts from your last line

It's you that I think about most

Looks like it's just me my beans and toast

Sunny days sunny days
I know are quite rare but I don't care cause I'm still
Oh so happy with the world today
What about a pretty girl
Well maybe yes but I'm okay I've had enough heart
break through the day
No thrills just beans and toast tonight.

I'm alone and that's okay
And there's nothing more to say
I'll just get on with my life
Now you're gone
Now you're gone.

Sunny days sunny days
I know are quite rare but I don't care cause I'm still happy oh so happy with the world today
What about a pretty girl
Well maybe yes but I'm okay I've had enough heart
break through the day
