I'm watching you die
Looking from the outside, Wasted days What will it take to stop one worthless life? Wasn't not a big enough scare
When the ones that care most, Give up and know that something's wrong
Things have changed
And if something's not quite right, It doesn't mean it's wrong
Open up your eyes
'Cause second chances don't come at our feet, Turn
the page
Start again, 'Cause someday soon you'll regret
More than what's already been lost
And if I speak my mind and it pushes you away
It's only because I care Angels from life
Don't let there be a second time, 'Cause tomorrow may not come
'Cause everybody Loves you, Don't leave us in the shadows
'Cause second chances don't come at our feet, Turn
Start again, 'Cause someday soon you'll regret
More than what's already been lost Yeah yeah
'Cause tomorrow may not come Goodnight
