It feels like rain just ran down my face
As you closed your eyes for the last time
Why can't we travel back in time
I wrote this song tonight for you
So you'll hear it every day
And know you're on my mind

I wanna hold you in my arms
And watch you sleep until tomorrow
Your silent sleep was pure beauty

I wish our lives were movies
So I could hit stop, rewind
Replay our favourite scenes
And take out the bad dreams
And repeat all the parts with you and me
I could see you every day
As we travel back in time

Someday I'll see you in heaven

I feel you're everywhere around me
These dreams that keep me up all night
They replay these memories over in my mind
I wrote this song tonight for you
I'd give anything, anything
To see you one more time

I wanna hold you in my arms
And watch you sleep until tomorrow
Your silent sleep was pure beauty

I wish our lives were movies
So I could hit stop, rewind
Replay our favourite scenes
And take out the bad dreams
And repeat all the parts with you and me
I could see you every day
As we travel back in time

Someday I'll be with you in heaven

Heaven

Now you're gone
Your story lives on
Life's a movie, life's a movie
Now you're gone
Your story lives on
Life's a movie, my life's a movie
