Tell me are you disappointed that I never grew up to do the things you were good at Hey now, are you mad for times i'm wrong?
Well i'm sorry

One day, one day
One day i'll look back upon these years
Broken dreams and teenage fears they made me
stronger

Speak your mind and tell me what you're thinking
I want to make you proud don't say that i'm dreaming
I need you more than ever say you'll help me

You know i'm sorry

One day i'll look back upon these years
Broken dreams and teenage fears they made me
stronger
And threw it all away
Please don't say it's easy when you're younger
