taking it one step too far this time no more excuses i want this off my mind there's been a stories of how much you care you no how it is we are going no where this is not a cry-out for another chance, chance, chance no not another chance this is me singing, u wont break me heart again heart again no

no more excuses i want this off my mind
out of my mind (echo) winding is a road and you're left behind torn between two worlds, your heart and mine

this is not a cry-out for another chance, chance ,chance
no not another chance
this is me singing, you wont break my heart again heart again no(echo)

no more excuses i want this off my mind this time, this time, this time, yer

no more excuses i want this off my taking it one step too far this time no more excuses i want this of my mind i'm taking a step back from you this time (this time) echo wouldn't see how it is to not live a lie live a lie (echo)
yer taking a step back from you this time
