Now he's gone away, only man who's ever made me cry
Not so far away, far enough to make me wanna die Crying over me, is what he's gonna be when he's hit by the need of my love Crying he will be, when he's dreamin' of me, and decides he needs what once was All the memories follow me wherever I may go Haunting melodies playing in the night to let me know Dance along with me with the sun and the sea
Only love makes what feels so sublime

Do a dance w/ me to a love fantasy That for one precious moment was mine

Crying he will be, when he's thinking of me, and concedes to the need to be loved Crying he will be, when he's dreaming of me, and decides that he needs what once was Dance along w/ me Mr. Sun, Mr. Sea keep the feeling so strong and so tender Do a dance w/ me to a love fantasy just for one day of total surrender
