(I've got a gift for you, I've got a gift for you...)

I've got a gift for you [x3]

And though they're not as nice as the ones you gave to me,

I hope that they will do

Hello again

I still try to remember how this all began

You can't undo

It's okay though because I've got a gift for you

Poison in the well - I've got a gift for you

A special place in hell - I've got a gift for you

The perfect place to dwell - I've got a gift for you

And though they're not as nice as the ones you gave to me,

I hope that they will do

Hello again

I still can't remember how this all began

One thing left to do

So I'm here now and I've got a gift for you

Poison in the well - I've got a gift for you

A special place in hell - I've got a gift for you

The perfect place to dwell - I've got a gift for you

And though they're not as nice as the ones you gave to me,

I hope that they will do

Sickness for the skin - I've got a gift for you

A cancer for within - I've got a gift for you

An ending to begin - I've got a gift for you

And though they're not as nice as the ones you gave to me,

I hope that they will do

Poison in the well

(I've got a gift for you)

A special place in hell

(I've got a gift for you)
The perfect place to dwell
(And though they're not as nice as the ones you gave to me,
I hope that they will do)

An ending to begin

(I've got a gift for you, I've got a gift for you...)
