"All the places and spaces I've been" (Repeat 4x)

[CL Smooth]

Welcome to the zone where the strong only survive
Places I drive all the gangsters can't stay alive Take my universal journey through the jungles of the hardest town
Where my brothers lay their life down
You want something to play with?
Go find some toys when you mistake these grown men for little boys
More real than what is real so feel I'm sending Compare the God with no beginning and we'll have no ending
My blessed rings are down with the kings revalation
Had heard me on the Run-DMC's reincarnation
Child abuse, women loose, robbery and triple homicide Every where this black man resides still Check the monolouge, I'm on a 6 a.m. jog
To regain my powers, do a set before the showers
I'm prime for the summertime, the big time bowler
But any season or reason we can't take it over

"All the places and spaces I've been" "Can you feel it?"
(Repeat 6x)

Are you ready for the legendary crazy rugged ?ready war?

Known to be the smooth that sat by the door
Furthermore, for you and I to click, here's the stats Take all that dirty money, set the wash doors and laundromats
You love to gamble now we open an after-hours spot 20 sacks with the Guinness for the jackpot
Members only, playing pool like Willie Marconi With a tenderoni chatting about the GS I'm batting I'm patting down with the sound of a general Fully supplied by my ghettofied residential
We come to rebuild and turn off the heat now
Hoping we can take it back to Yugenot Street
Palled around the screen TV watching the fight

Tonight, cause if it ain't rough it ain't right Ink tents in all of my circumference I connect Now demanding all types of respect, can you dig it?

"All the places and spaces I've been" "Can you feel it?"
(Repeat 6x)

Travelling the warp speed we come to the peak
Like a missile I probe and seek, many can't critique My physique is still solid, chiseled down to the very last compound

I'm trying that chin, fool, where you been?
Still sliding girls in as soon as pops fall asleep
His game tight, set to flip a shorty late night
I like rocks and groupies, condo shows and cuties
The hottest cars and the strongest drinks at the bars
This is one of those joints that make you stand by the exits

Cause every time I'm yapping something crazy happens
Keep my tool in my baggy jeans rolling with sneaker feet

Who got a life term working for the firm
My labor's fruit off of business as usual
Plus my two clan band is making me a wealthy man
Now from where I stand, believe it's not a game Pete Rock and C.L. Smooth's a household name

"All the places and spaces I've been" "Can you feel it?"
(Repeat 6x)
