I was born
The daughter
Of a bad, bad man
At 17
Turned the corner
And I never looked back

Now I believe in the wind's innocence
I've got the shit left behind,
And a long road ahead

Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it dim your light, you gotta
Give it all just to keep up the fight
Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it take your grace
You're gonna get what you make.

Crossed the border
With a song
And a dream in my hand
California
Took it all
And choke me with the rise and the fall,
It's much sweeter within

Now I believe in the wind's innocence
I've got tidal waves
Of a good fight coming
(Fight coming)

Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it dim your light, you gotta
Give it all just to keep up the fight, now
Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it take your grace
You're gonna get what you make

Quicksilver in the dark
(Don't let it dim your light now)
It's so unstoppable
(Don't let it dim your light now)
And when the magic comes
They'll say, 'I knew it all along'
(They'll say, 'I knew it all along')

Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it dim your light, you gotta
Give it all just to keep up the fight
Don't let it dim your light, you're a
Dark horse like a thief in the night
Don't let it take your grace
You're gonna give it all
Don't let it take your grace
You gotta give it all
