Be warned.
We got cards up all of our sleeves
We're the doers of all dirty deed.
Be warned.
I'm here just to prove all your friends right.
Watch your back and keep us in your sight.
Talking love through your teeth but all put aside.
That wacky shit you been splittin' was found to be lies.
I've met a lot of people and written more off.
A lot of friends have been fake and hearts turned soft.
Asshole, asshole
Get with this shit
All these rumors, I'm used to it.
Got no more time
I'm fucking through
Not much sense left inside you motherfucker
Be warned
We got cards up all of our sleeves
We're the doers of all dirty deed
You are just a fuck pupper in my book.
I never took a second look.
