I told you
All the things I wanted to say
But you didn't listen
You forgot all that came your way
Come on

Bridge

What's the point of speaking?
If you're never even listening
The sun's always shining
The moon's always glistening, 1, 2, 3, 4!

Chorus

I told you
When you tried to hold me, yeah
I told you everything I had to say
I always said it over and over again
But I told you
When you tried to ignore me
I always told you

What did you do
To your last girlfriend?
Did you take the new for granted?
Did she get a new boyfriend?
Did she tell you secrets?
Did she spill the beans?
If she didn't well
You know what that means
She wasn't as good as me

Repeat bridge and chorus

What did you do
To your last girlfriend?
Did you take the new for granted?
Did she get a new boyfriend?
Did she tell you poems?
Did she change the scenes?

If she didn't well
You know what that means
She wasn't as good as me

Repeat bridge and chorus

I told you
When you tried to hold me
I told you everything I had to say
I always said it over and over again
But I told you
When you tried to ignore me
I always told you everything
