I say, kids donâ€™t care
Theyâ€™ll never be anyone but kids
Even though you say
Kids should be more grown up
No they shouldnâ€™t

Chorus

Kidsâ€™ll never be anything
Except the kids that they are
So accept it
They like football, hockey, music and more
So it just goes to show that youâ€™re wrong

Kids, they are still young
So keep them like that while it lasts
If you want them to grow up
Like school, work and things like that
They wonâ€™t do it
They like sports, computers, TVâ€™s, things like that
You canâ€™t force them, they arenâ€™t brats
So leave them, while they are kids, oh, no,

Repeat chorus

Donâ€™t make them work let them play
See the kids playing well leave them be
We were kids once, it was hard
Thereâ€™s some supporting Man United,
Liverpool, Arsenal and Chelsea
Thereâ€™s some in hockey uniform
Wearing jeans, rock outfits and all
They donâ€™t want to wear school uniform
Ties, blazers, not yet â€˜cause they are still kids

Repeat chorus

No, kids donâ€™t care (No they donâ€™t)
Theyâ€™re never gonna change
At least not yet anyway
No, kids donâ€™t care (No they donâ€™t)

Theyâ€™re never gonna change
At least not yet anyway
No, kids donâ€™t care (No they donâ€™t)
Theyâ€™re never gonna change
At least not yet anyway
Maybe someday, maybe someday,
Maybe someday theyâ€™ll change

Repeat chorus
