This is my final resting place
I'm never gonna let my hands wander free
This will be my unchanging phase
You're never gonna see my sad and guilty ways again

It's time, it's time I find That my words will never reach you if I can't seem to meet you
And I hope that you don't mind
But this happy ending is now descending, I apologize for the last time

I'm standing by my eternal grave
Listening to myself stumble through this eulogy I've laid to rest all of my mistakes
You're never gonna see my sad and guilty ways again

It's time, it's time I find
meet you
And I hope that you don't mind
But this happy ending is now descending I apologize for the last time, I apologize

It's time, it's time I find
meet you
It's time, it's time I find
meet you
I hope that you don't mind
But this happy ending is now descending, I apologize for the last
I apologize, I apologize for the last
