This shit is for real
I gotta destroy
So much hate packed into my board
Thrashing the curbs and bombing the street
Stalking through downtown smashing my feet
Spot the gap then the ledge is next
Security on my back now I gotta flex.
Pop the tail and kick the front.
I've committed this far to bail now would be fucked.
Fuck you.
Eyes to the road and wheels to the street.
Bruises on my shins and holes in my feet.
I don't got much to fall back on in life
But these 7 ply's by my side.
