Lately I've been down
Thinking 'bout the world's got me freaking out
Take another hit just to calm myself tonight
Lately I've been scared
Thinking 'bout the road coming up ahead
Take another hit just to calm myself tonight

[Chorus]

And the writing's on the wall
And though we're too far down the road
To make it home

Lately I have seen
All that I have lost staring back at me
Take another hit 'cause it's what I need tonight
Lately I've been swayed
Thinking 'bout the world in a different way
Take another hit to restore my faith tonight

[Chorus]

And the writing's on the wall
And though we're too far down the road
To make it home
To make it home
To make it home
To make it home

[Chorus]

And the writing's on the wall
And we've seen it all before
And though we're too far down the road
To make it home

[Chorus]

And the writing's on the wall
And we've seen it all before
And though we're too far down the road
To make it home

Lately I've been down
Thinking 'bout the world's got me freaking out

Take another hit just to calm myself tonight
