She walks a few feet off the ground, sparks fly, electrifying air got chills, but when i turn around she disappears like she was never there if love's supposed to hit like lightning from above, then it just struck and left me up, and I'm gone, but its gonna shine on fallin' in I'm fallin' up, crazy diamond in the rough she's what im talking about, and what I'm talking about is love gives me light, so i can see when the stars go out on me she's all i need to shine on, shine on, whoah-oh-oh (x2) never turn it off she's on the verge of a break down,meltdown, too much heat in this crazy town but I've got something to write home about right now she fell for me impossibly, or could this all be in my mind, just the thought is fine still were gonna shine on fallin' in, I'm fallin' up crazy diamond in the rough She's what I'm talking about, and what I'm talking about is love gives me light, so i can see when the stars go out on me
she's all i need to shine on, shine on, whoah-oh-oh (x2) Never turn it off, every time i get a look at this It's like it came from a high eclipse, It can't stop the way we shine on even when the lights are fading fast I know the feeling's gonna last Nothing can stop the way we shine on do do do do do do do do do fallin' I'm fallin' up, crazy diamond in the rough She's what I'm talkin about and what I'm talkin about is love gives me light so I can see, when the stars go out on me She's all i need to shine on, shine on, whoa-oh-oh (x3)
