My friends ask me if I'm doing ok
But it all depends on if you called today
So I guess that means I'm not doing so good
And I'd forget about you baby if I could

My friends ask me how I am tonight
But if i heard from you then i'm doin ah'ight
That's the trouble with this situation
We go up and down in and out of love, cause

It's a circle game
I don't wanna play
I think I'm over it
And then I hear your name
And I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out
It's a circle game
Nothing's gonna change
The better half of me is tellin me to loose your name
But I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out

Everyday is different but it feels the same
My mood goes up and down with every move you make
If I could I'd get myself off this ride
And we'd be on the same page at the same time

It's a circle game
I don't wanna play
I think I'm over it
And then I hear your name
And I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out
It's a circle game
Nothings gonna change
The better half of me is tellin me to loose your name
But I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out

I want off of this merry go round
It keeps spinnin me round and round
It gets hard to breathe when your not with me

And an hour can feel like eternity
So baby,

Why do we keep going
Round and round and round we go
Where we stop we never know
Round and round and round we go
Where we stop we never know
Round and round and round we go
It's a circle game

It's a circle game
I don't wanna play
I think I'm over it
And then I hear your name
And I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out
It's a circle game
Nothings gonna change
The better half of me is telin me to loose your name
But I get lost in the sound
And I can't find my way out
