My mama told me
Not to give away my heart too soon
Don't fall in love like every guy
My mama said
That love will only come to those who wait
And I believed her by and by
But then I met you
I knew I couldn't forget you
Your love is all I'll ever need

This was meant to be
Darling this is destiny
The only thing I know for sure
When all is said and done
Baby you're the only one
I'm unconditionally yours

I want to hold you close
And feel your body next to mine
Forget the lonely tears I cried
And now I've found you
I don't ever want to let you go
And lose this feeling deep inside
Cos the moment I met you
I knew I couldn't forget you
Your love is all I'll ever need
