You got fast food and slow cars
An unhealthy obsession with pop stars A diet that contains almost no carbs are you really happy this way
Do you ever stop just to push through the season She tells me there's gotta be a bigger reason for all of this I'm still fed up with all of this

Son don't turn water into wine Nobody really wants the consequence of being that divine Everyone says they're heaven sent is it just a waste of time
Because I see her picking up the pieces from a world behind
Her fingertips

I will tell it like it is whether it makes sense at all just because of a point I missed And I'm tired tried tested and bruised Only ever really used and useless if I choose

Son don't turn water into wine
Nobody really wants the consequence of being that
divine
Everyone says they're heaven sent is it just a waste of time
behind
Her fingertips

I don't wanna be here
I don't wanna be here right now
I don't wanna be here gotta find a way to get out I don't wanna be here I don't wanna be here right now right now right now

Fast food and slow cars
