Whenever I had the nerve to think that I had outgrown
my teacher
Or I was living too good to listen to the preacher
You'd make it so that I would realize my disillusion
Then I'd have to re-evaluate some things, oh I

At one time, I was truly a circumstantial kind of praiser Only when things were going good, I'd lift my voice in worship
Forgetting when all of the chips were down, who faithfully
Stayed around and helped me out, Lord, I don't know how?

At times I lost sight of my faith
At times I tried but I found it hard to wait on You
Many times I have taken things in my own hands
And messed up bad, so here I am singing

This is me, in my entirety
This is me, a person saved by grace
Humbly, confessing, with You I'm something
But without You I'm nothing, Lord

This is me, so plain and ordinary
This is me, minus everything fancy
Placed simply here to give You praises
And give honor to Your name

Through trials, You mold me I'm forever a work of art in progress
Though I don't always seem to see it, yes, it does manifest
It's just so evidently no one can deny that You're the
One
Working through me, so I can be what You called me

With thoughts of faith, I read Your word and boldly claim my blessings
And with my whole heart I will worship You for simply being
Above all things, the morning star that brings light and hope for me

Lord, I really need Thee

At times, I lost sight of my faith
At times, I tried but I found it hard to wait on You
Many times I have taken things in my own hands
And messed up bad, so here I am

This is me, in my entirety
This is me, a person saved by grace
Humbly, confessing, with You I'm something
But without You I'm nothing, Lord

This is me, so plain and ordinary
This is me, minus everything fancy
Placed simply here to give You praises
And give honor to Your name

I pray that You forgive me for the times I Couldn't take at Your word, word, Lord
I am willing to give my everything
Everything to please Thee

Lord, Your grace is more than sufficient
And as for Your will for me, I accept it
And who I am in You, I'm confident and I believe Please hear me, I come to Thee

This is me, in my entirety
This is me, a person saved by grace
Humbly, confessing, with You I'm something
But without You I'm nothing

This is me, so plain and ordinary
This is me, minus everything fancy
Placed simply here to give You praises
And give honor to Your name

This is me, in my entirety
This is me, a person sure to saved by grace
Humbly, confessing, with You I'm something
But without You I'm nothing, Lord

This is me
