I refuse to let this problem keep going round and round

It's not enough to talk about it

I had a theory you were running out of fools

You were out of line

It made me want to shout about it

Wisdom and grace seem so far away

When you're on your knees longing for the storm to break

(chorus)

You can colour me blue it's alright

Colour me blue it's alright

I never needed you to guide me through the rain

You can colour me blue it's alright

One side of me would throw in the towel leave it all behind

The other side would play to win

You made me mad, you made me cry

You made me crazy with your alibis

You made me want to shout about it

All the saviours in this world

Cannot help me with what I must do alone

(chorus)

You can colour me blue it's alright

Colour me blue it's alright

I'm gonna change this sad old tune and dance again

You can colour me blue it's alright
