I said he's lying on the beach with a rum and cola

Doing all the wealth for all it's worth

A view of the coast and a golden roller

Yeah things to meet and jewels to plunder

Due to land sometime today

But I'll leave him there and I let him wonder

Naturally he'll be concerned

When his diamond lady don't return

Lies on the beach with his glinting eyes

Out of reach of those stealing prizes

I'm going to see his face when he realises

His diamond lady is gone

Diamond lady has gone

His girlfriend diamond dream is leaving

But soon the truth must start to dawn

There's a fortune there it won't be gained

I bet he's going round the bend

Now the loser loses

Sees his victim as a kind of a ball

He was totally used and I'm the user

Naturally

I'll be there

But I'm out of reach my foolish friend

Lies on the beach with your glinting eyes

Out of reach of those stealing prizes

I'm going to see his face when he realise

Diamond lady is gone

Lies on the beach with your glinting eyes

Out of reach of those stealing prizes

I'm going to see you face when he realises

Diamond lady is gone

Your diamond lady's gone

Diamond lady's gone

Well your diamond lady's gone

She's gone
