You can let him call you honey

You can let him spend your money

You can let him, let him hold you tight now

Hug and kiss you all through the night but

Don't put your heart

(Don't put your heart)

Don't put your heart

Don't put your heart in his hands

He's just a little boy don't

Take him seriously

You're just another toy he'll handle carelessly

He, he, he

When those sweet words I've said

Don't let him go to your head

If he believes you love him too

He'll just destroy you so

Don't put your heart

(Don't put your heart)

Don't put your heart

Don't put your heart in his hands

Don't put your heart in his hands
