I'm not out of danger Where ever you may hide There's still tears to be overcome Wild dreams to ride At night the sky is burning And staring through the pains I see all the past the future lies Writing your name On the roses In the garden of love First thing in the morning and last thing at night All is reborn into dark into light First thing in the morning I look through the sights I aim to be there, be there Out of sight but not out of vision I know what I can see Maybe Shadows all are falling on me Keep on running to me On the roses In the garden of love First thing in the morning and last thing at night All is reborn into dark into light First thing in the morning I look through the sights I aim to be there First thing in the morning and last thing at night All is reborn into dark into light First thing in the morning I look through the sights I aim to be there, be there, be there First thing in the morning and last thing at night All is reborn into dark into light What else can I do but to look through the sights I aim to be there, to be there I aim to be there, there First thing in the morning and last thing at night All is reborn into dark into light First thing in the morning I look through the sights I aim to be there First thing in the morning and last thing at night Last thing at night First thing in the morning I look through the sights First thing
