Nothing left in my heart

But heartaches

Since you said that we must part

And so my hungary heart

Is searching high and low

Looking for a dream before it breaks in two

My hungary heart

Is trying not to show

All the loneliness that it's been going through

I can't make it alone

I got to have a love of my own

To fill my hungary heart

Like you used to do

But I can't find that precious kind of thrill I knew

Before you went away and took your love from my poor
hungary heart

Take me back baby please

Don't make me crawl to you on my knees

I beg you have a heart like you used to do

I just can't find that special kind of dream we knew

Before you went away and took your love from my poor
hungary heart

My hungary heart

Been searching so long

My lonely heart

It's been crying for you
