I've run dry I've run dry

In this place silently

Curtains and walls and carpets coloured blue

Are on the floor hurting too

Anger stirs in these bones

Emptiness leave me alone

Oh harbour me

I'm a drunk on the street

I'm a train miles away

Sunshine beats down in paradise again

Leading me blind to your game

I've run dry over you

I've run dry over you

I'll quench my thirst to stay alive

Passers by will free these chains

Wrong or right its all the same

Oh rescue me

Curtains and walls and carpets shiny and new

Don't mean a thing without you

I've run dry
