Love is a warm kind of sorrow

When I know that all too soon it has to end

Yes love is a warm kind of sorrow

'Cause I know I'll never feel this way again

Hold me baby hold me

For tomorrow you'll be gone

You promised one day you'll return

'Till then I must live on

But I never felt this way before

I swear I couldn't love you more

My life will be so empty

Once you close the door

Makes love a warm kind of sorrow

When I know that all too soon it has to end

Yes love is a warm kind of sorrow

'Cause I know I'll never feel this way again

In my heart I have a tender spot A place where you alone Made love burn firey hot

And without your love what have I got

Just a love that's a warm kind of sorrow

When I know that all too soon it has to end

Yes love is a warm kind of sorrow

'Cause I know I'll never feel this way again

Baby baby baby come back

I'll never feel this way again

Baby baby baby come back
