I can't wait for the day

To make my boy look my way

So I went out and bought myself a pair of high heels

Just hoping they'd do the trick

And it was oh such a kick

And all at once I caught his eye in my high heels

Hi-hi-hi-high heels, my lucky high heels

I sure hope he'll go for what he found

I didn't have long to wait

Before he really asked for a date

He never asked for one before I got my high heels

I can't believe that it's true

That there's romance in a shoe

But they sure made me the happiest girl in town

Hi-hi-hi-high heels, my lucky high heels

I sure hope he'll go for what he found

Hi-hi-hi-high heels, my lucky high heels

I sure hope he'll go for what he found
