Last week my life had meaning
It was beautiful and so sweet
But now it's nothing nothing without you baby
My whole world is incomplete
'Cause honey I can't see you no more
That was all that you said baby
But you just might as well have Placed a gun to my head
Baby baby oh baby
My whole world ended the moment you left me
Oh yeah
My whole world ended the moment you left me
It tumbled down to the ground baby
Did you ever mean those sweet things
That you used to say
Did you mean it
Of a house with a lovely a lovely garden
And a little baby someday
Tell me where did I go wrong honey
Whatever changed your mind
I've asked myself these questions now

Over a million times
Baby baby oh tell me now
My whole world ended the moment you left me
Oh yes baby
My whole world ended the moment you left me
It tumbled down to the ground baby
Now my body is so alone
I feel so senseless to the touch
My life is so wasted so wasted without you
I guessed I loved much too much
Oh baby how can I face tomorrow
When yesterday is all I see
I just don't want to face tomorrow
If you're not sharing with me
Baby baby oh tell me why
My whole world ended the moment you left me
Oh yes baby
My whole world ended the moment you left me
It tumbled down to the ground
