No no tears at all

No no tears at all

No no tears at all

Only only smiles

Only only songs

Only only love

No more sighs at all

No regrets at all

No more nights alone

All that was is no more

No more crying in vain

Hoping you would come back

I shall find happiness

Now that I have more time

And a new tenderness

In this heart of mine

I will believe in a word

But not in words said in vain

Yes I will find me a new love

And never cry again

No no tears at all

No no tears at all
No no tears at all
I don't want to cry
For the one that was
With no heart for me
Baby loves again
Maybe love's a dream
Still I don't know why
The time just flew away
No use calling it back
What's the good if I stay
I shall find happiness
Now that I have more time
And a new tenderness
In this heart of mine
I will believe in a word
But not in words said in vain
And I'll never shed tears again
No more tears again for him
