When you're making love tonight
With a feeling that everythings just not right
Take a look in his eyes and see
Are you there where you're meant to be
In a rock when you're lying low
And you're wondering if you should just Get up and go
Take a look in the mirror that's free
Are you there do you care that you kiss
He's looking for a saviour
Open your eyes and see
Is he doing you no favour
You know it has to be
Better go
On my island high and dry I'm thinking that things aren't fun
Are you still small do you sell youreslf short
And I'm learning how to shed some tears
For losing you
As well as my friends
Everything's moving

Loving or losing
Just go on proving
He's looking for a saviour
Open your eyes to see
Is he doing you no favour
You know it has to be
Better go
When you're making love tonight
With a feeling that everything's just not right
Take a look in the mirror that's free
Are you there do you care that you kiss
Now I've found my saviour
Open your eyes and see
I'm doing myself a favour
You know it has to be
Now I've found my saviour
Open your eyes and see
You know it has to be
Open your eyes and see
You know it has to be
Open your eyes and see
Open your eyes and see
Open your eyes and see
Open your eyes to see
