I'm under no illusion

'Cos nothing is forever

You changed my life

You opened up the river from the stream.

I've had enough of heartaches

It's hard to know what love takes

I feel you reaching for me

In the darkness.

There's a need

Only you can fill

It's a need

Everybody feels

Such a need

Only love can ever still.

No illusion

No more lies

And no more sad goodbyes

I've got a feeling for you

And everybody knows.

When a heart aches

It's hard to know what love takes

Still there's a need to be filled
In the darkness of my dreams.
There's a need
Only you can fill
It's a need
Everybody feels
There's a need
Only you can fill
It's a need
Only love can ever still.
I don't wanna lose you
I only wanna love you
And give you what you give to me
I can take your heart away
Anytime, anyday
There's a need
Only you can fill
It's a need
Everybody feels
Such a need
Only love can ever still.
