I'm living in another time another place

I knew you then

It used to be a different world

And now I start to live again

A sight of heaven in a grain of sand

Leading me on taking me by the hand

Time mends a broken heart

Time mends a broken heart

Love tears it all apart

But time mends a broken heart

I see you in another life

There's someone else that I didn't know

There's someone else that I don't know

It used to hurt me deep inside

I had to learn to let you go

I thought that happiness was by your side

I didn't know that it was here in me

And still alive

Time mends a broken heart

Time mends a broken heart

Love tears it all apart

But time mends a broken heart

Time mends a broken heart

Time mends a broken heart

Love tears it all apart

But time mends a broken heart
