Meet me on the telephone again tonight

Send a little understanding my way

And when you find the day

Has been an uphill fight

That's alright

Let me be the one you call to say

Twenty four hours is more than a day when you're gone

I never thought a day could last so long

Twenty four hours is more than a day without you

Let me be the one you bring your troubles to.

Even though the world can turn you upside down

There is always something just out of view

Remember you were there for me

When friends could not be found

This time round

Let me be the one who's there for you.

Twenty four hours is more than a day when you're gone

I never thought a day could last so long

Twenty four hours is more than a day without you

In my life when I need your loving

Twenty four hours is more than a day when you're gone

I never thought a day could last so long.

And if you need someone to talk to

When the day is through

Let me be the one

To make your dreams come true

And meet me on the telephone again tonight
