Don't Call Me Early In The Morning

G D C G

Chorus: Don't call me early in the morning,

C G D

Call me what you want to but leave me alone.

G D C G

Don't call me early in the morning,

D Em

Just leave me till the cows are coming home.

G C

A man or a woman they need their relaxation

G D

From rising always at the dawn

G C

And the heart of the matter tomorrow is a Saturday

G D

And I'll be lying on.

cho.

G C

Sad the lad that can't rest contented

G D

He has it all but must have more.

G C

He fills himself with pills to retire with a million,

G D

But falls asleep at sixty-four.

cho.

G C

Fair is fair and I've done my share,

G D

My nerves are getting on my nerves.

G C

If you don't have a pillow of the white swan's feather,

G D

I'll do with a corner for my head.

cho.

G C

Just a gentle warning for tomorrow morning,

G D

No big noises near my room.

G C

Cars with no exhaust, Chickens with the hooping cough,

G D

And milkmen that whistle out of tune!

cho.
