Barcelona: where the winds all blew
The churches don't have windows
But the graveyards do
Me and my shadow are wrestling again
Look out stranger there's a dark cloud moving in
But if you could hear
The voice in my heart
It would tell you
I'm afraid I am alone
Won't somebody please
Hold me, release me, show me
The meaning of mercy
Let me loose
Let me fly
Let me fly
Let me fly
Super-paranoid
I'm blending, I'm blurring, I am bleeding
Into the scenery
Loving someone else is always so much easier
But I hold myself hostage in the mirror
But if you could hear the voice in my heart
It would tell you
I'm tired of feeling this way
God won't you please
