Heart of stone, has turned to clay
Angelic woman guided me from my evil ways
Needed something to forget yesterday
Caress my hand, please take me away
Do you remember seeing me in heaven?
I remember swallowin' every bit of my pride
Do you remember seeing me in limbo?
I remember wallowin' in every bit of my shit
And then I'm crying for
I need you to show me the one
I need you to take me away
I'd like to tell you 'bout my problem
Every single word, I ever said is a lie
You seem to help me with my problem
Slap me in the face and rub my nose in my shit
And then I'm crying for
I need you to show me the one
I need you to take me away
I thought I was invincible
'Til I saw myself
I tried to live young at heart
But my mind is older now
