Been given eyes for the blind
To seek the answers
For questions of mankind
You know that I
I've got to find
Some meaning to my life
And yes I've said I want it
I want it now
Live it now
Take it yeah
You neglect the way
To strive to make the most
Of every single day
And you know that I
I got the way to deal with that problem
Yes I've said I want it
I want it now
Live it now
Take it
Yes I've said I want it
I want it now
Live it now
Take it yeah
If the truth is out there
You would never know
You're running from your problems
And running for your life
I think I can, I think I can
Your cause is just a reaction
To the procrastination of lost principles
Within your heart and mind
Time it slips away
It tends to be held more precious with decay
You know that I
I got a way to deal with that problem
Yes I've said I want it
I want it now
Live it now
Take it
Yes I've said I want it
I want it now
Live it now

Take it Yeah
If the truth is out there
You would never know
You're running from your problems
And running for your life
