dance slow now, sugar the view is spectacular here, tonight there he goes exploding all the light in one fell blow

hitting planes down

'cause everyone, they're robots with their heads held on by wires who are we? who are we?
'cause everyone's duct taped and tied pin stuck, but look how happy
who are we? who are we?

don't go inside
the band is terrible here, tonight sit by me and jump off this balcony

twenty floors down so fast and loud, clothes flapping and we're smiling
with their hearts wrapped up in wire
who are we? who are we?
pin stuck, but look how excited
