look through my eyes
and tell me just what do you see in schools that look like factories
we slow dance to our own heartbeats
look through my eyes
as missing children fill the streets joan arc and josephine you can hear them sing

we are living in misery
in misery, in misery
but we have to hold on yes we have to hold on

you and i we are the sons and daughters of kings and i want to live for centuries i want to see everything now you're on of us so fall in love with tragedy this is tempo and the key this the song we have to sing

misery
living in misery

hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on, hold on
