"Welcome To Chicago"

Yeah it's 4am in a speeding car
OD'd on X and G but what are you on?
Turn up the radio
Turn up the radio
Turn up the radio
Welcome to chicago, motherfucker

At the top of the sears tower
I tongue kissed a coke-fiend at the afterhours
She turned up the radio
Said, Let's get out of control
I wanna blow shit up, and never come down
Never come down
Never come down
Never come down
Oh no

(Just tell me you're being careful)

Welcome to chicago, motherfucker

I ran after you 'cause later I might be dead
This jello shot I think went straight to my head
Oh, this isn't Moscow
Oh, this isn't Tokyo
We are invincible
Panic! Panic!

Never come down
Never come down
No, never come down
Never come down
No
Never come
Down
