So many times I have met a special friend
Making memories, wishing this night would never end
I'm in the front seat, she pulled up next to me
I've got this feeling like I'm falling for infinity

You see what I've been going through?
'Cause my eyes are red and white and blue
Take advantage of my time with you
'Cause the night is young, and we are too

If it's goodbye, all I can say is I
I know that I'll be back again someday
I had the time, time of my life
But it's back out on the open road tonight

Singing into Summer's eyes
I listened to her say goodbye, goodbye
But it's back out on the open road tonight

So many vibes I, I try to send
Turn your heart a brighter color using oxygen
The chemists say I, I'm full of shit
But check your charts again, we added in an element

The way you smile, the way you walk
The way you sing along, to bedroom talk
This is the movie life that can't be bought
These are the wonder years, so take a shot

If it's goodbye, all I can say is I
I know that I'll be back again someday
I had the time, time of my life
But it's back out on the open road tonight

Singing into Summer's eyes
I listened to her say goodbye, goodbye
But it's back out on the open road tonight

[Tonight!]

If it's goodbye, all I can say is I

I know that I'll be back again someday
I had the time, time of my life
But it's back out on the open road tonight

Singing into Summer's eyes
I listened to her say goodbye, goodbye
But it's back out on the open road tonight
