[We've got a glitch in the system
'Cause things are always bad,
And now it's time]

We've got a glitch in the system
'Cause things are always bad,
And now it's time
To figure out what's been missing
'Cause we can't live like that,
It's wasting ammunition

This is a position I didn't want to take Forced me into a decision that I didn't want to make
And now there's promises I'm gonna have to break
To all the people that were pushing us away

So hold my head underwater
But I'll still find a way to fight and keep breathing
Just makes me try even harder
Beause it's all that I have left to believe in

So let's go back to where we started
Back to the roads we drove when we were just dreaming
Back to the lovely life because we were thinking
Instead of dreaming, instead of dreaming

[Instead of dreaming, instead of dreaming] [x2]

Sometimes it's hard to see what somebody means to me
Until they bail out on me when we're not breathing
Now I'm finally free, found out who I gotta be Well you never see the things I believe in

You held my head underwater
But I still found a way to fight and keep breathing
Just makes me try even harder
Because it's all that I have left to believe in

Back to the roads we drove when we were just
dreaming
Back to the lovely life because we were thinking
Instead of dreaming, instead of dreaming

We hit a glitch, now things are running smoothly
We passed the breaking point, and it did not ensue me
We took a chance, that we ended up losing
Just didn't think it'd be the people closest to me
What did I do to you to make you say goodbye?
Now all that there is left to do

Is hold my head above water
Because I found a way to fight and keep breathing
Just makes me try even harder
Because it's all that I have left to believe in

Back to the roads we drove when we were just
dreaming
Back to the lovely life because we were thinking
Instead of dreaming, instead of dreaming
