(Verse 1)

I want you to corrupt me
I want you to make me bleed
I wanna be your savior
I wanna part your seas
Fill you up until you're whole again
I'd make you feel alive
So you don't feel so empty on the inside

(Chorus)

All of these thoughts pounding in my head
With the words I wrote in a letter I never sent
The distance in our lives may change
The times that you can never rearrange
Will our worlds collide the next time?

(Verse 2)

I want to be your lover
And never just your friend
I swear I'll be beside you
Every chance I get
I wish you'd take me a little more seriously
When I say to you
Don't act like you don't know who I'm talking to
You damn well know

(Chorus)

All of these thoughts pounding in my head
With the words I wrote in a letter I never sent
The distance in our lives may change
The times that you can never rearrange
Will our worlds collide the next time?
Will our worlds collide the next time?

(Bridge)

I let you dig your hole too deep in me
Pretty soon you'll let me down again
Will I still see you in my sleep tonight
Will I still see you in my sleep tonight

(Verse 3)

I wanted you to linger
I want you on my mind
I swear I'll think about you
All the time

(Chorus)

All of these thoughts pounding in my head
With the words I wrote in a letter I never, I never sent
The distance in our lives may change
The times that you can never erase
Will our worlds collide, will our worlds collide, will our worlds collide the next time?

(Verse 1)

I want you to corrupt me
I want you to make me bleed
I want to be your savior
