Before we leave I need to let you know the deal this will be my last quest as captain of your ship
So when we scan the seas tonight I'll pray for you, it's the least that I can do

I've been let down more times than I can think of or I can dream of
I've been let down more times than I can think of or I can dream, dream of My mum kept sighing when I was told my Father died From that first field to my last medal

He was by my side

He said stay smart
when you grow up use your head and not your hands, or you'll turn out how I did A wasted notion, man who borrowed time Forced to get lost into the night.

I'll pray for you, it's the least
that I can do
I've been let down more times than I can think of
or I can dream of
I've been let down more times than I can think of
or I can dream, dream of

So Alone
I'll never sleep the same and the ocean floor is calling out my name

I'll pray for you, it's the least that I can do (x4)

I've been let down more times than I can think of
or I can dream of
I've been let down more times than I can think of
or I can dream, dream of

Yeah
