Start the tape, we're locked away
You better come clean, for your life's at stake.
Where is your brother? And is he safe?

And don't mention problems,
They mean shit to me,
I've lived through things you won't believe.

Now

I'll help you escape from here,
If you just tell me the truth
(We care, we swear, we do)
I'll help you escape from here,
If you just tell me the truth.

My hands are tied,

Wait here and thank the Lord,
You've made it this far without a scratch,
We've got the judge on board.
(My hands are tied, my eye's sewn shut)
Lets call it quits before they shut the light off.

OK I'll spill my guts to you,
I took his life, and that's the truth.

Say we're lost, now it's come to mind,
Today was just fine,
We've cut our losses, we're no longer blind
Today was just fine
