Your son, your sky: nothing but a book to live by
Will we ever find the truth
Wake up and realize your life is a lie
Aggregate views of one man alike

Show me Your face
Give me a sign
Anything real
I don't want to feel this no more

Look me in the eye and scream my name
Tears, sweat and blood will be our game
Walk along the planks of neurotic decay
Give me Life or death, just remove this pain

Your prayers are useless
Unanswered through this
Life of cruelty
I don't want to feel no more
If you're real, then kill me
Bring me to your gates
I'll be your slave for eternity

Here we are, are we every really alone
A trip to mars, a wave of light goes
There you were behind a shadow
I never really hated you until now
