A new religion, a new kind of fuck
A better prescription and some kind of book again...
Another celebrity stopping a war
Will somebody out there tell me what's wrong?
Oh yeah
Another computer that walk, talks and fucks
Another teenager that's proud (up the duff) brackets
Another profit a money making scam
Will somebody out there tell me what's wrong?
It's a travesty
Like it's always been
It's a travesty
And we're never wrong, never right, never wrong
It's a travesty
Like it's always been
And it's all our fault, all our fault, all our fault
The same religion we all walk in shame

There's little difference there's no one to blame again
Another celebrity shopping for fame
Will somebody out there just tell me what's wrong?
It's a travesty
Like it's always been
It's a travesty
And we're never wrong, never right, never wrong
It's a travesty
Like it's always been
And it's all our fault, all our fault, all our fault
It's a travesty
Like it's always been Like's always been
Like it's always been
And we're never wrong, never wrong, never wrong, never wrong never wrong, never wrong, never wrong,
never wrong
Never wrong!
Never wrong!!!
