I'm as passive as I can be I'm so blind i can't see Why people take advantage of me Squeeze me dry of all I've got Drained of life, I slowly rot Just because I care a lot Take my money, take my time Take whatever I call mine Never greedy always fucking kind Now I'm empty do you care Doesn't matter I'm always there to let you strip me fucking bare Can't take it away from me(3X) Can't take my pride All I know is all I've got But i know i have a lot time for this to fucking stop Playing games with my head suppressed anger burning red It's better off. that I have something said Blank stares and blatant lies half truths and alabis pull the shades over my eyes Now I'm wise to your game and I see it's all the same Once again myself
